The SURFA COAT INDIA EXPO serves as a platform for manufacturers, distributors, solution providers, and end-users to showcase innovations, network with industry leaders, and explore the latest technologies and developments in the sector.

India's surface coatings industry, encompassing paints, industrial coatings, protective finishes, and specialty applications, is one of the fastest-growing segments in the global materials sector. Driven by rapid urbanization, infrastructure development, automotive expansion, and a shift towards sustainable technologies, the industry has shown robust post-pandemic recovery. As of 2025, it benefits from government initiatives like "Make in India," Smart Cities Mission, and affordable housing programs, which boost demand in construction and manufacturing. The broader paints and coatings market (including surface coatings) is projected to grow significantly, with industrial and protective sub-sectors leading in high-value applications such as corrosion resistance and eco-friendly formulations.

The Indian paints and coatings market, which heavily overlaps with surface coatings, was valued at approximately USD 9–13 billion in 2024 and is expected to expand at CAGRs ranging from 7–9% through 2030–2033. Variations in estimates depend on scope (e.g., inclusion of decorative vs. industrial segments), but consensus highlights Asia-Pacific dominance, with India as a key growth engine due to its manufacturing hubs. Overall, India's surface coatings industry is poised for double-digit growth in specialty areas, positioning it as a global hub amid Asia-Pacific's 4–5% regional CAGR.

The South India region plays a dominant role in India's overall paints and coatings market. South India held the largest market share in this sector as of 2024, driven by rapid industrialization and urbanization.
